

SWISS
SLACKLINE

Schweizer Slackline-Verband
Fédération Suisse de Slackline
Federazione Svizzera Slackline
Swiss Slackline Federation

info@swiss-slackline.ch
www.swiss-slackline.ch
facebook.com/swisslslackline

Bern, 15.11.2014

What can a regional association offer its members?

Training

- Outdoor-Training
- Indoor-training during wintertime -> Renting gymnasiums -> Establishing contact with the sports department

Events

- Organisation of a slackline festival
- Social events such as: “Slack n’Grill” and “Slack n’Brunch”
- Organisation of workshops and courses for schools, clubs, etc.

Gear/Equipment

- Renting out gear: e.g. slackline sets, longline rigs, A-frames and tree protection
- Discounts when ordering slackline-equipment through mass orders.
- Sale of equipment: e.g. tree protection and wind dampeners
- Storage room for gear close to slackline spots or somewhere else
- Equipment needed for indoor training (anchoring devices, sets, etc.)

Communication and networking

- Management of a Whatsapp/SMS/Hangout (Google) group for spontaneous slackline meetups

- Management of a Facebook group in order to exchange information and to facilitate organisation among members and interested locals
- Management of a Facebook page to communicate publications (e.g. newspaper articles), photos and videos, to the interested slackline community

Large pool of knowhow

- Technical tips -> faster learning
- Spots
- Education on gear and handling
- Safety
- Advice when buying personal gear
- Legal advice

Representation of interests

- Main contact of the gardening department of the city of Berne
- Contact person for the local sports shops, which are selling slacklines (Raising knowledge and awareness, especially concerning tree protection)
- Counseling for universities, schools, sports departments, gardening departments (playgrounds) etc. on the topic of slackline parks (indoor and outdoor)

Identification and goodies

- Products: Crew T-shirt, -belt, -hat, etc.

Insurance

- Liability claims are handled by the crew's insurance at events (Trainings and meetups of crew members in general)